

Sometimes I travel in areas with limited local access to radio reports. I value XMs traffic reports to help my commute. This is a service that benefits many people. I'm sure there are real issues that Washington can spend time on to help people and not one that would end up hurting.